

Press Release

Fourth accredited supplier with "Nedaa" Signing an agreement with "Microhit" for the supply of Hytera devices"

October 7th. 2013: the Professional Communication Corporation "Nedaa" had signed an agreement with Microhit Technologies for the supply of "Hytera" devices. Mr. Mansoor Bu Osaiba -Deputy Chief Executive Director signed for "Nedaa" and Mr. Chandran Mavulla, General Manager signed on behalf of Microhit Technology.

The agreement provides for the accreditation of the Microhit Technologies by the Professional Communication Corporation "Nedaa" to supply Hytera devices to become the forth accredited distributor with the Corporation to supply the devices to the wireless networks "Tetra".

On this occasion, Mr. Abdulla Al Falasi, Director of the Commercial Affairs with “Nedaa” stated: " This agreement confirms the “Nedaa” uninterrupted endeavors to provide the latest to its valuable clients, a matter that indicates the keenness of the pioneer national Corporation to bring the latest global technologies to the UAE Market and to meet all the needs of its dealers by providing devices of high-value and quality, which are easy to use".

Mr. Al Falasi added: " Microhit Technologies is one of the leading companies in the field of communications and provision of their own solutions and products since 2001, and it works on different types of projects, such as construction, hospitality, security, manufacturing and health care, as it seeks to provide the best products and solutions and to develop its customer base. We look forward to building fruitful cooperation with them through this agreement which aims to provide the best solutions for clients”.